Drugs

- Cocaine
Cocaine is the most serious threat to the state, especially crack cocaine, because its abuse and distribution are associated with violent crimes.²⁹
- Heroin
Heroin is considered to be a low threat to the state. Abuse and availability are concentrated in urban and coastal areas.³⁰
- Marijuana
Marijuana is the most readily available drug and is commonly abused. It is considered a less serious threat because it is less associated with violent crimes.³¹
- Methamphetamine
There is growing abuse and availability of methamphetamine in the coastal centers of the state, particularly in the Myrtle Beach area.³²
- Club Drugs
There has been a recent significant increase in ecstasy distribution throughout the state.³³
- Other Drugs
The availability and abuse of diverted pharmaceuticals are increasing threats to the state.³⁴
- Of those South Carolina adults surveyed between 2001-2002, 22.5% reported the use of marijuana within their lifetime.³⁵

Enforcement

- As of October 31, 2002, there were 12,128 full time law enforcement personnel in South Carolina (8,787 officers and 3,341 civilians).⁴¹

Trafficking and Seizures

- New York City is the source area for most of the heroin available in South Carolina.⁴²
- African American criminal groups and street gangs are the primary transporters, wholesale distributors and retail distributors of cocaine in South Carolina.⁴³
- Most of the marijuana available in South Carolina is produced in Mexico and trafficked into the area by Mexican criminal groups. Small amounts of marijuana are produced locally by independent Caucasian dealers who also abuse the drug. Most marijuana produced in South Carolina is cultivated outdoors, although indoor cultivation is increasing due to the prolonged drought in the area.⁴⁴

- Most of the methamphetamine available in South Carolina is produced by Mexican criminal groups in Mexico, California, and other southwest states, although instate production is increasing.⁴⁵
- Heroin is mainly trafficked and distributed in wholesale quantities by Dominican criminal groups and African American local independent dealer and street gangs. Retail sales are controlled by African American street gangs and local independent dealers.⁴⁶
- In the second quarter of FY 2003, there were 32 clandestine laboratory seizures in South Carolina. State and local agencies as well as the DEA made these seizures.⁴⁷
- During 2002, Federal agencies seized 137.3 kilograms of cocaine in South Carolina.⁴⁸
